Ladies –

This is a short newsletter just to get the following information into your hands.

URGENT

The New England Fall Foliage trip is almost full. The ship has a very few cabins left. If you want to join me for this beautiful, historic, romantic and cultural feast – NOW IS THE TIME. After this week I cannot guarantee space.

Leaf-peepers make this a popular time of the year to visit the colorful northeast. The peak of the foliage is short-lived, making this a highly demanded cruise itinerary.

If you are short on time, join us for Montreal and the 7-night cruise. You do not have to extend your trip on Boston and New York.

Whatever your choice, you must let me know IMMEDIATELY to be on the boat with us.

Bon voyage-

Marcia

Machu Pichu and Galapagos

Plans for this 2011 trip are still in formation but I can tease you with a little more information.

It is being timed to be at Machu Pichu for the May 17 full moon. The Galapagos Cruise will be 4 nights for plenty unrushed wildlife viewing.

May is the ideal month for travel to Peru and Ecuador, as neither is too hot, cold or wet. The average high temperature in the Galapagos is 81 with the water at 75 degrees. Machu Pichu's rainy season is over and the rush of tourists has not arrived.

Get your passport ready. This is a good one!

Petit Paris - March 19-26, 2011

Oui, Oui! We are going to take the girls to Paris in March 2011. If your daughter or granddaughter is 6-12 and you want to see her eyes when she first spots the Eiffel Tower, then this is for you.

Move at a child's pace as the girly treats of Paris appear - Montmartre artists, Tuileries Gardens, crepes, Champs d'Elysees, Angelina's, Maison du Miel, Fragonard parfumeur...

FiFi and Fido

We put in lots of planning for our own time away from home but what about our pets? Consider these tips from Dr. Libby Hawkins for taking care of them too-

If you are not present the vet cannot treat your animal without written or verbal consent. Here are some tips to streamline potential issues-

- ♥ Be sure your pet sitter has your contact info
- ♥ Leave a form of payment with the sitter, clinic or emergency after hours clinic
- ♥ Leave written instructions with the caregiver with regards to-
 - Euthanasia
 - Consent for medical decisions and care
 - Extent of care you are willing to approve
