

Reagan Centennial & Presidential Tour

Join a sisterhood of interesting, energetic Republican women for this unique event.

February 6-10, 2011 $999/person based on double Airfare arrangements available

A $200 nonrefundable deposit will hold your space. Itinerary subject to change without notice. Travel insurance highly recommended. No refunds missed activities. Items of a personal nature, gratuities and alcoholic beverages not included. Airfare available

The year 2011 marks the centennial of Ronald Reagan's birth. His library is undergoing restorations to be completed for the celebration. California also claims Richard Nixon as its son. His library in Yorba Linda rounds out this red, white and blue tour of western Presidents' libraries and gravesites. A visit to J. Paul Getty's collection of art is a feast to the eyes set against the backdrop of dramatic architecture, tranquil gardens and breathtaking views.

INCLUDED

4 nights Palomar 4* hotel
Daily breakfast and evening wine reception
Reagan Library visit with guided tour
Getty Center visit with lunch
Nixon Library visit and tour
Welcome dinner
Private transportation
Professionally escorted by Marcia Miller

ITINERARY

February 6

Arrival LAX. Private shuttle to hotel available. Group dinner together to meet your traveling companions.

February 7

Reagan library guided tour and lunch and time on our own. The library offers a tour of Air Force One and displays a piece of the Berlin Wall. Afternoon free to explore west LA or Beverly Hills.

February 8

J. Paul Getty's art collection seen from a stunning museum overlooking the Pacific with lunch.

February 9

Private bus transfer to Yorba Linda and Nixon Library. Highlights include the helicopter in which he left the White House, his birthplace and the First Lady's Rose Garden. Return to hotel for free time.

February 10

Independent departures for home. Transfers available.

BECAUSE WOMEN TRAVEL DIFFERENTLY THAN MEN.