

April brings gardens bursting with the colors of blooming dogwoods and azaleas. Mild temperatures make this the best time of year for a visit.

The delightful squares of Savannah drip with Spanish moss, epitomizing its beauty. The seaport town of Beaufort boasts Blackbeard as its famous son. Sweetwater basket weavers are its modern treasures. In Charleston history speaks to us through pirate and ghost stories. It was also the flash point for the start of the Civil War. Plantations visits offer a glimpse of antebellum life.

This trip is for you if you love-

Southern gardens
Gracious hospitality
American history
Antiques and art
Rich southern cuisine

Included

- *3 nights East Bay Inn
- *Savannah trolley tour
- *Private historic home reception
- *Beaufort tour and basketry demo
- *Private coach Savannah to Charleston
- *3 nights French Quarter Inn
- *Carriage ride and Fort Sumter visit
- *Magnolia Plantation tour
- *1 night Middleton Inn and admission
- *Middleton Inn farewell dinner
- *Daily breakfast
- *Nightly wine and cheese reception

Itinerary

Day 1 - Arrive Savannah

Day 2 - Trolley tour of the city with afternoon free for your interests.

Day 3 - This morning take advantage of the time to stroll the squares of Savannah. Stop in at the Savannah School of Art and Design shop to view the student's work and pick up a bargain. Swing into the City Market and Paula Deen's shop.

Day 4 - Aboard of private coach to Charleston we will visit the charming seaside town of Beaufort. Our walking tour will culminate in a special presentation by the ladies who weave the sweetgrass baskets. Arrival in Charleston in time for dinner.

Day 5 - City tour with visit to historic Ft Sumter

Day 6 - Free day to take part in the Annual Home and Garden tour if you wish.

Day 7 - We are off to Magnolia Plantation for a tour and then to Middleton Place Inn for the night and a special farewell dinner.

Day 8 - Roam the oldest landscaped gardens in the country. Be careful of alligators. Time to return home this evening.

BECAUSE WOMEN TRAVEL DIFFERENTLY THAN MEN.